

Arizona Public Law 1005

Abolish all Taxes for Americans

We, The Arizona Assembly, a member of The United States of America unincorporated, with lawful superior concurrent general jurisdictions over land, soil, sea, and air in Arizona, hereby issues Public Notice to all people, that it is declared and recorded by roll call vote, Arizona Public Law 1005

Arizona Public Law 1005 declares that as of April 1st of 2025 all taxes will be recognized as unlawful and no longer collected from Americans. These taxes are unlawful and voluntary, except for Federal Employees or U.S. Citizens.

These taxes include but are not limited to income (federal and state), sales, property, Medicare, social security, payroll, consumption, franchise, surtax, licenses, wealth tax, nanny, fees, tolls, registrations, inheritance, capital gains, death, inflation, etc. No corporations, entities or their principals will be immune to prosecution for imposing the aforementioned taxes on Americans beginning April 1st of 2025.

This is concurrent with Public Laws A1010121, A1010224, and A1010124 passed by all 50 states of The United States of America, unincorporated. These public laws apply to all Americans, Federal Employees, and U.S. Citizens in every state.

Those in violation shall be either fined or imprisoned according to our fee schedule.
