

Arizona Public Law 1004

Transition Federal, Municipal, State, County, Township, and City Courts and Services to Common Law

We, The Arizona Assembly, a member of The United States of America unincorporated, with lawful superior concurrent general jurisdiction over land, soil, sea, and air on Arizona, hereby issue Public Notice to all people, that it is declared and recorded by roll call vote, Arizona Public Law 1004.

Arizona Public Law 1004 declares that as of March 8, 2025 all foreign courts operating on Arizona will be transitioned to common law services for the people/People. National Common Law was invoked as the law of the land on October 5, 2024 for all states. See attached Declaration of Land Law.

This shall include, but is not limited to, all Federal, Municipal, State, County, Township and City courts on Arizona. In addition, these offices will be required to use common law practices: Governor, Attorney General, Treasurer, Secretary of State, Sheriffs, State Mine Inspector, Superintendent of Public Schools, Corporation Commission, Department of Administration, Department of Revenue, Motor Vehicle Services, Statewide IT Policies, Licensing and Taxes, BAR Attorneys, Registrars, Clerks, Magistrates, etc.

All offices will be converted either to common law or be shut down, if not needed. All employees will either be let go or trained in common law services as enumerated in the Constitution for the united States of America. The Arizona Assembly shall decide which services and people will remain active.
